The Two Houses not coming to any Agreement in the Appointment of a Treasurer for the Southern District, Vacated by the Death of M<sup>r</sup> Starkey, that the Province might receive no Detriment; I have Commissioned M<sup>r</sup> Samuel Swann the Treasurer During my Pleasure, or Untill the End of the next Session of Assembly; when the Legislature will either confirm my Appointment, or make their Nomination of a Treasurer. The Hurry the Representatives were in to get to their Plantations, was, I guess, the reason, that they did not enter into an Examination of their Public Funds; I shall however again recommend the Necessity of such an Enquiry. The Assembly stands prorogued to the 27 November next, to be then held at Newbern In another Packet I shall send the Drafts of the Line run between the Kings & Lord Granville's District, and also the Lines that was run at the time of my Arrival in this Province in October last between the Two Carolinas.

I am my Lords with all due Respect & Deference

Your Lordships

Most obedient & most humble Servant

W<sup>m</sup> Tryon
